Civil Action

No.

Mark Gervacio, ET AL
Plaintiffs

U.S. DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MASS.

vs.

Thomas M. Hodgson, Sheriff ET AL;
Defendants

Affidavit of Indigency

Now comes the plaintiff Mark Gervacio, please, and stands before the honorable Court that all inmates are presently confined at the Bristol County House of Correction located at 400 Faunce Corner Rd North Dartmouth.

They are indigent and the majority inmates are detainees waiting on bail; pertaining these pending cases, some are illiterate & don't speak English, which they have no help from prison officials who are trained in the law, nor is there a law library where these inmates may receive help from other inmates who have knowledge within the legal profession to assist them (prisoners) with their legal issues.

Therefore:

Plaintiff, in the class-action complaint request that all motions be granted to protect the inmates constitutional right to access to the Court, with an adequate law library and legal materials, and staff official trained within the law.

Respectfully Submitted
